

THE CLAY CITY TIMES.

50 Cents a Year in Advance.

We are here to help Clay City, the Surrounding Country and Ourselves.

J. E. Burgher, Publisher.

VOL. XI.

CLAY CITY, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1906.

NO 4.

Notice.

All persons indebted to this paper are kindly requested to pay up as the publisher is anticipating a business venture that will require all the money owing us and more too. We have several hundred dollars out on job work, advertising and subscription, which is small to the different persons who owe such indebtedness, but if all paid in would be much to us. Start the new year right by owing the printer nothing.

We have a purchaser for a small farm well located, but it must be cheap. Cash will be paid for the right kind of a place. For further information, apply at this office.

New Railroad in Operation.

Floyd and J. C. M. Day have their new Natural Bridge & Campton Railroad completed eight miles of the way. They have built a depot at Pine Ridge, four miles this side of Campton and opened traffic on the new road. The road is a narrow gauge and will be completed to Campton when Spring opens. From the start made the traffic promises to be very large and profitable.

Death of Mrs. D. C. Bloom.

Mrs. D. C. Bloom died at her home in this city Wednesday, January 24 after several days illness of complication of diseases. She was last week removed to the hospital at Lexington, in hopes of improvement, but to no avail. She leaves a husband and two children.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Presbyterian church this morning. Burial at Vaughn's Mill Christian Church.

Summer in Winter.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday were most warm enough for August, having a very Springlike appearance, and the sweet notes of the Spring bird were to be heard in the trees. The warm weather prevailed in all parts of the United States, being even warmer in some parts of the North than in Kentucky. It began raining here Monday which was followed by cooler and more wintry weather.

Winchester Court.

Monday was a rainy, muddy day, and the Stockyards were a cheerless place. The number of cattle on hand was not large and as nearly all were sold privately and by the head, quotations were had to secure, and quite a number were left unsold.

Four cts. offered and refused for a lot of good steers, 1,100 lbs., and 3½ cents was also refused for some good heifers. Among the sales were the following:

R. T. Bush bought 17 steers, 650 wt., $3.60.

E. Lyman sold 9 steers, 600 lbs., at $3.50.

Solomon sold 40 steers, 800 lbs., at $29.25 each.

H. N. Rankin bought 12 extra cotton mules at $150 to $160 and 2 horses at $130 and $170.

J. M. Barker, of Lexington, bought for North Carolina parties a load of good Southern horses at $100 to $175.

Wiel sold 20 steers, 900 lbs., at $30 each, and a lot of heifers at $15 each.—Winchester Democrat.

The Farm and Home Sentinel

Dignam's Magazine

The Farm and Home Sentinel, established 1822, contains the latest experience of Federal and State Stations, new methods and discoveries by successful farmers concerning soil, crops, live stock, poultry, dairies, etc.; a special department discussing domestic affairs, one for children, pages of fashions, etc. Fiction by the best authors, timely articles by experts—in short, it is a first-class, illustrated farm and home paper. (Non-political) Published semi-monthly.

Dignam's Magazine is the latest success in the magazine field. It has an attractive cover in three colors, printed on heavy paper, full of interesting stories for every member of the household; contains articles on art, music, literature, and beautiful pictures galore. Published monthly.

Agricultural Epitomist

The Agricultural Epitomist enjoys the distinction of being the only agricultural paper in the world that is actually edited and printed on a farm. On its 650-acre experimental farm near Spencer, Ind., a force of practical, up-to-date men are constantly engaged in experiments in all lines of agriculture, the reports of which appear exclusively in this publication. In addition, more than a score of the best writers in the country contribute regularly to its columns. As its name implies, the articles are all brief, concise and full of meat. It is without doubt one of the best, if not the best monthly farm paper in the country.

The Valley Magazine

The Valley Magazine is designed for the home circle. Its fiction is of rare merit, its departments varied, its illustrations high-class, and special features by special writers on timely subjects abound in each number. It brings the latest knowledge and experience in matters of health, recreation, fashions and domestic economy, and personal facts on beauty, conduct, conversation, etc. Published monthly.

The Clay City Times

needs no describing. It stands pre-eminently as the leading weekly of Powell County. It completely covers the local news of the county. It has an honest policy, backed by sound principles. It is now ten years old, and expects to in the future, as in the past, labor for the upbuilding of Clay City, all of Powell county and her people as well.

WITHIN THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS WE OFFER THIS UNIQUE COMBINATION

To both old and new subscribers we make this offer at great expense the TIMES, ever ready to secure the best possible for its readers. If you appreciate clean, honest journalism, both in your weekly newspaper and the magazine you take into your home, you should appreciate this offer.
